

Coaching, Training, Workshop, Challenge, Mentorship & Consulting Program 2020

Introduction:

The Coaching, Training, Workshop, Challenge, Mentorship & Consulting Program ("the Program") facilitated by Luis Daniel Maldonado Fonken ("the Mentor") is designed to provide guidance, support, and resources to individuals aspiring to live abroad and travel, or work remotely or from a home location continuously while engaging in entrepreneurial and self-education activities. While the Program aims to empower participants to achieve their goals and maximize their potential, it is essential to understand and acknowledge the following disclaimers:

1. No Guarantee of Results:

Participation in the Program does not guarantee specific outcomes or results. Success in entrepreneurship and lifestyle traveling depends on various factors, including individual effort, dedication, skills, market conditions, and external circumstances beyond the Mentor's control. Participants are responsible for their own success and are encouraged to approach the Program with realistic expectations.

2. Personal Responsibility:

Participants acknowledge that they are solely responsible for their decisions, actions, and outcomes related to their entrepreneurial endeavors and lifestyle choices. The Mentor provides guidance and support, but ultimately, participants must exercise their judgment and take accountability for their choices and their consequences.

3. Not Professional Financial or Legal Advice or Trauma Therapy or Healing Services:

The Mentor is not a licensed financial advisor, accountant, or legal professional, trauma therapist, or health practitioner. The information, advice, and resources provided in the Program are for educational and informational purposes only and should not be construed as professional financial, accounting, or legal advice, advice of a health practitioner or trauma therapist. Participants are encouraged to seek appropriate professional advice tailored to their specific circumstances before making any financial or legal decisions.

4. Risks and Uncertainties:

Entrepreneurship and/or traveling lifestyles inherently involve risks and uncertainties. Participants acknowledge that there is no guarantee of success and that they may encounter challenges, setbacks, and unexpected events along the way. The Mentor does not assume any liability for losses, damages, or adverse consequences resulting from participants' business decisions or travel experiences.

5. Personal Health and Safety:

Participants understand that traveling, especially to unfamiliar or remote destinations, carries inherent risks to personal health and safety. While the Mentor may provide general travel advice and safety tips, participants are responsible for ensuring their well-being, including obtaining appropriate travel insurance, vaccinations, and following local laws and regulations.

6. External Resources and Third-Party Services:

The Program may recommend or provide links to external resources, products, services, or third-party websites for informational purposes. The Mentor does not endorse or guarantee the accuracy, reliability, or quality of such resources, and participants are encouraged to conduct their research and exercise caution when engaging with external providers.

Coaching, Training, Workshop, Challenge, Mentorship & Consulting Program
2020*7. No Professional Relationship:

Participation in the Program does not establish a professional relationship, such as coach-client or mentor-mentee, between the Mentor and the participants. The Mentor provides guidance and support based on their expertise and experience, but participants retain full autonomy and responsibility for their decisions and actions.

8. Modifications and Amendments:

The Mentor reserves the right to modify, amend, or update the Program content, structure, policies, and disclaimers at any time without prior notice. Participants are encouraged to review the latest Program information regularly and acknowledge that their continued participation constitutes acceptance of any changes.

9. Confidentiality and Privacy:

The Mentor respects participants' confidentiality and privacy and will not disclose personal information shared within the Program without consent, except as required by law or to fulfill legal obligations. Participants are responsible for maintaining the confidentiality of sensitive information shared within the Program community.

10. Limitation of Liability:

To the fullest extent permitted by law, the Mentor disclaims any liability for direct, indirect, incidental, consequential, or punitive damages arising from or related to participation in the Program, including but not limited to financial losses, business interruptions, or personal injuries, regardless of the cause or form of action.

Conclusion:

By enrolling in the Mentorship Program, participants acknowledge that they have read, understood, and agreed to the terms and disclaimers outlined above. The Program aims to empower individuals to pursue their entrepreneurial and lifestyle goals with confidence, resilience, and integrity, but participants acknowledge that success is not guaranteed, and they assume full responsibility for their journey.
